2011 LIBERAL ARTS CHAMPIONSHIPS

MEET INFORMATION

Welcome to the 2011 Liberal Arts Swimming and Diving Championships which is hosted by Coe College. This is the 32nd annual men's championship and 27th annual women's championship. Wabash College hosted the meet for the first six years, DePauw was the site for the next 15 events, before returning to Wabash in 1999. Coe College hosted the meet in 2000, 2001, 2004-2007, and 2009. Principia College previously hosted the meet at the St Peters Rec-Plex in 2002 and 2003 and at Principia College in 2008 and 2010. We welcome you to this season ending meet and hope swimmers, parents, and fans enjoy their stay here at Coe College. We also wish all participants the best of luck in pursuit of NCAA qualifying times, but more importantly hope each participant achieves a lifetime best performance at this meet. Good luck to all!

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Preliminaries begin at 10:00 a.m. each day, Thursday through Saturday

Finals begin at 6:00 p.m. each day, Thursday through Saturday

PARTICIPATING SCHOOLS

Coe College proudly welcomes the following schools to this year's Liberal Arts Championships: Eureka College, Franklin College, Illinois Institute of Technology, Lindenwood University, Loras College, Luther College, McMurray University (TX), Principia College, Simpson University, and University of Minnesota-Morris

CONDUCT OF EVENTS

NCAA rules will govern the conduct of the meet. Preliminaries and finals will be conducted in all events except for the 1,650 freestyle and the 800 freestyle relay, which will be conducted as timed finals. The fastest heat of the 1,650 freestyle and the 800 freestyle relay will be swum in the finals with all other heats swum in the preliminaries. There will be a ten minute break before and after relays. There will also be a guaranteed time interval of at least ten minutes from the end of one women's event to the start of the next women's event, and the same for men. One consolation and one final heat will be held for each individual event. The consolation final will consist of the 9th through the 16th fastest swimmers from the preliminaries. The championship final will consist of the eight fastest swimmers from the preliminaries.

DIVING

Diving will consist of 11 dives on both one and three-meter for both the men and women. There will be diving competition held each day.

SCORING

Points will be awarded to the top 16 finishers in each event. Relays will receive double points.

20 - 17 - 16 - 15 - 14 - 13 - 12 - 11 - 9 - 7 - 6 - 5 - 4 - 3 - 2 - 1

ENTRY LIMITATIONS

Each participant will be permitted to compete in a maximum of seven events, with a maximum of three individual events. A team may enter an unlimited number of competitors in each event.

AWARDS

Awards will be given to the first, second, and third place men's and women's teams. The top eight individuals in each event will receive awards, as well as the winning relay team. Swimmer of the meet male and female awards (determined by a scoring system) will also be presented to both swimmers and divers.
